

YOU REAP WHAT YOU SOW.

The Fiends in the Furrows: An Anthology of Folk Horror is a collection of nine short stories that hew both to the earthy traditions and blaze new trails in Folk Horror. Fans of Folk Horror, as well as those unfamiliar with it, will find horrors galore in these stories. Themes of rural isolation and insularity, paranoia, mindless and monstrous ritual, as well as arcane ceremonies clashing against modern preoccupations run through these stories.

Selected for the Preliminary Ballot of the 2018 Bram Stoker Awards. Includes the stories “The Jaws of Ouroboros,” by Steve Toase and “Back Along the Old Track,” by Sam Hicks—both chosen by Ellen Datlow to be included in The Best Horror of the Year Volume 11, published by Night Shade Books.
