

YOU REAP WHAT YOU SOW.

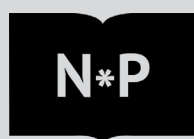

The Fiends in the Furrows II: More Tales of Folk Horror is a collection of short stories of Folk Horror, honoring its rich and atmospheric traditions. Fans of Folk Horror will find herein more terrifying tales of rural isolation, urban alienation, suburban superstition, pastoral paranoia, as well as mindless and monstrous ritual that epitomize the atmospheric dread of this fascinating and developing subgenre.

Selected for the Preliminary Ballot of the 2020 Bram Stoker Awards. Includes the story “A Deed Without a Name,” by Jack Lothian, chosen by Ellen Datlow to be included in The Best Horror the Year Volume 13, published by Night Shade Books.
